Shadowrun Shadows of Amn. European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker says the European Union is committed to maintaining the status quo in relations with Russia until it ends its occupation of Crimea. Speaking after a meeting with EU foreign ministers in Brussels on Thursday, Juncker said the commission has had talks with Russia about returning Crimea, but no progress has been made. He said that maintaining the status quo is in the interests of both sides. "If there is an ongoing dialogue and we want to see the outcome of that dialogue, we don't want to see things (change) rapidly. We want to see things (change) bit by bit, step by step," Juncker said. The meeting comes as EU foreign ministers hold an emergency summit in Brussels on Sunday over the ongoing crisis in eastern Ukraine. Jenson Button says his teammate Nico Rosberg is "frustrating" to deal with after the German was involved in a collision with the Briton in Spain. Button is fifth in the drivers' standings, on 68 points, with a 12-point deficit to Red Bull's Sebastian Vettel. Rosberg said after qualifying for the Spanish Grand Prix that he would not be "disrespectful" to Button by ignoring his warnings, and it appears the 29-year-old is playing mind games as the Belgian battles to avoid elimination from the title fight. "It is kind of weird, he comes to the pitbox, puts the radio on, talks to me and then gets in front of me," said Button. "I'm not disputing him racing, but you are not going to get me out of the way by getting in front of me. "It's hard to have a normal conversation with someone like that. I have to find the best way to deal with it. Nico is kind of frustrating, he is that kind of person." The incident, which happened on the last lap of qualifying, has hurt Rosberg's race weekend. "He was trying to back off, and if he'd have just stayed behind me he'd have been fine," said Button. "I thought he was doing the right thing but then I saw him in my mirrors, and I had to brake. The yellow flag should have come out and he should have slowed down. "He has never been disrespectful to me, he is always friendly and polite, but he is always trying to edge his way into the points.
